Located on the ground floor of a small boutique complex, this property opens itself to an astute Investor or someone who wants to call this beach pad, home.

The unit has two generous bedrooms, an open plan living, dining and kitchen with easy ground floor access. It has been recently painted, re-carpeted and every room have a ceiling fan. The low-maintenance complex ensures very low strata rates and there is a tenant that would like to stay on, perfect for investors.

This is a unique opportunity to invest in a prime piece of coastal real estate at an entry-level price.

Be quick though. At this price and location, it won't be around for long.
