Stunning panorama of water, mountain and bush views

Located in an elevated street, this solid brick home gravitates toward the north. Large windows capture lots of natural light and ensure you cannot escape the panorama of water and bush views. The vaulted ceiling accentuates the feeling of space and multiple sliding doors connect the inside with the outside. There are balconies on both levels that run the entire length of the property and wrap around to a covered entertainment areas. The rear of the property boasts a private and lush view through the canopies of the trees below. It is almost a tree & sea change in one.

The master bedroom occupies the eastern aspect of the home and through the plantation shutters there is nothing else to see but the canopies of the palm and treetops below. Utmost privacy is achieved. The room is tied off with wall-to-wall built-in robe and ensuite. There are two more bedrooms with built-in robes on the top floor and main bathroom.

The lower floor is almost like a flat on its own. There is a side entrance, kitchen, large living space with high ceilings, bedroom and bathroom. The floors are connected by the internal stairs and lockable door at the top if you are interested in separating the two. The bush and water views are also enjoyed from this level.

There is plenty of storage throughout, double garage with remote access and parking off street for at least three more vehicles.

Grab your towel and walk down to Bagnall's beach for a swim or grab a burger or some delicious Thai food at the nearby eateries. The lifestyle on offer is second to none.
