This generous five-bedroom home is a showstopper. Holding an elevated position in a quiet cul-de-sac, this master built home has form, function, and overlying sense of elegance.

Beyond the grand formal entry and pivot front door you will find a warm and inviting home not just a house. The functional floorplan moves past a formal living area at the front, down a wide hallway with light wells illuminating the interior while luxurious tiled flooring is throughout most of the home.

The spacious open plan kitchen, dining and living is the true heart of this home. Stunning stone and stainless-steel grace the gourmet kitchen and have a seamless connection with the enormous alfresco area via stacking doors or the convenient servery window. There is a beautiful water view out to Soldiers Point enjoyed from here which enhances the feeling of openness that this home has.

The master suite holds a private position and its own balcony at the rear of the dwelling. Generous in size, this luxurious wing of the home has a walk-through robe, beautiful ensuite and waterview. There are four more bedrooms all with high ceilings and built-in robes allowing lots of space for the growing family or the visiting grandkids.

The Surrounding yard is spacious and private as it is elevated above the neighbours. Relatively level and easy care or the perfect place to add a pool.*
