Entertainer's Delight

Minutes away from the sand dunes of Stockton and Birubi beaches, you'll love the moment you step into this light filled home to enjoy the coastal atmosphere, while feeling like you are in your own resort.

Located in the heights of Anna Bay, this spacious 3-level home enjoys independent living areas that provide both seclusion and privacy. The entrance level features Australian hardwood timber floors and flows through to the formal living room. The spacious master bedroom includes an ensuite and walk-in robe, while the second bedroom also has a built-in robe. Most bedrooms showcase floating timber floors and ceiling fans are also featured throughout the home.

Taking the stairs down to the central level of the home, any chef would love the streamlined kitchen which features stainless steel appliances and Caesarstone splashback and benchtops. The open plan will make cooking and entertaining a joy and will easily become the central hub of the home. This level also features the formal dining room, 3 other bedrooms, main bathroom, laundry plus the second main living area enjoying a sunny northerly aspect.

This area of the home also opens out to the covered alfresco entertaining & BBQ, where you can entertain while the kids splash around in the sparkling pool. The third level has a separate entrance and provides access to the 6th bedroom, the 3rd living area and steps out to the private rear lawn and garden.

This magnificent home with its rewarding design is one that will definitely suit many types of families. Prepare to be truly amazed by the spaciousness.

This beautiful home has many desirable features and will unlikely last long on the open market. Act quick and contact one of our friendly sales agents to find out
